IMPORTANT INFORMATION

THIS PASSPORT IS THE PROPERTY OF THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT. IT MUST BE SURRENDERED UPON DEMAND MADE BY AN AUTHORIZED REPRESENTATIVE OF THE DEPARTMENT OF STATE. THE PASSPORT IS NOT VALID UNLESS SIGNED BY THE BEARER ON PAGE TWO.

LOSS, THEFT OR DESTRUCTION OF PASSPORT must be reported immediately to local police authorities and to the Passport Office, Washington, D.C. 20524, or, if overseas, to the nearest American consular office.

ALTERATION OR MUTILATION OF PASSPORT. This passport must not be altered or mutilated in any way. Alteration may make it INVALID and, if willful, may subject you to prosecution (Title 18, U.S. Code, Section 1543). Only authorized officials of the United States or of foreign countries, in connection with official matters, may place stamps or make statements, notations or additions in this passport. You must not alter any dates or make any changes in your description, on the photograph, or on any other page of this passport. You are permitted, however, to amend or update personal information for your own convenience on the inside front cover.

EXPIRATION. This passport is valid for five years unless expressly limited to a shorter period. The expiration date is given on page two.

LOSS OF NATIONALITY. You may lose your United States nationality by being naturalized in, or by taking an oath or making a declaration of allegiance to, a foreign state; or by serving in the armed forces or accepting employment under the government of a foreign state. For detailed information, consult the nearest American consular office.

DUAL NATIONALS. A person is considered a dual national when he owes allegiance to more than one country at the same time. A claim to allegiance may be based on facts of birth, marriage, parentage or naturalization. A dual national may, while in the jurisdiction of the other country which considers him its national, be subject to all of its laws, including being conscripted for military service. Dual nationals who encounter problems should contact the nearest American consular office.

WHEN TRAVELING IN DISTURBED AREAS you should keep in touch with the nearest American consular office.

DURING PROLONGED RESIDENCE ABROAD you should register at the nearest American consular office.

GENERAL INFORMATION

IMMUNIZATION. Under the International Health Regulations adopted by the World Health Organization, a country, under certain conditions, may require International Certificates of Vaccination against Smallpox, Yellow Fever, and Cholera from international travelers. NO vaccinations are required to return to the United States. Some other countries, however, may require certain immunizations, and certain other preventive measures are advisable for some travelers. The booklet, "Health Information for International Travel," available from the Superintendent of Documents, U.S. Government Printing Office, Washington, D.C. 20402, provides pertinent information. Specific information, especially relating to malaria, may be obtained from your local health department, physician, or private or public agency that advises international travelers.

HEALTH INSURANCE. Persons considering foreign travel should determine what health insurance coverage, if any, they have while outside the United States. Medicare does not cover health care costs outside the United States except under limited circumstances in Canada and Mexico.

CUSTOMS SERVICE. The pamphlet, "Know Before You Go," gives you current pertinent information about customs requirements, and how they apply to articles acquired abroad. Obtain a copy from your nearest Customs Office or from the U.S. Customs Service, P.O. Box 7118, Washington, D.C. 20044. The transportation of currency or bearer instruments, regardless of the amount, is legal; however, if you take out of or bring into the United States more than $5,000 (U.S. or foreign currency, travelers checks, money orders, or other bearer monetary instruments), you are required by U.S. law to file a report with the U.S. Customs Service.

TREASURY. The unlicensed purchase or importation of merchandise of Cuban, North Korean, Vietnamese or Cambodian origin is prohibited except for merchandise with a foreign market value of $100.00 or less imported in accompanied personal baggage directly from those countries. For further information contact the Office of Foreign Assets Control, Treasury Department, Washington, D.C. 20220.

AGRICULTURE. Your reentry into the United States will be speeded if you bring with you NO foreign meat, other animal products, birds, animals, fruits, vegetables, plants, soil, or other agricultural items. It is unlawful to import foreign agricultural items without permission since they may carry destructive plant or animal pests and diseases. For specific information, write "Quarantines," PPQ, APHIS, U.S. Department of Agriculture, Hyattsville, Maryland 20782.

Mrs. Mildred C. Green
1575 Belvedere, Unit 129
El Paso, Texas 77912

Dear Mid:

I received your letter of July 28, 1993, enclosing a copy of Jack's letter and another copy of your last Will, as well as the current itemization of assets. It is easy to modify your Last Will consistent with Jack's request, by way of a Codicil, which states:

> "I, Mildred C. Green, do hereby amend my Last Will and Testament dated October 7, 1982 in Roswell, New Mexico, as follows: Any share of my estate which would have passed to John Roy Green pursuant to paragraph 2 of my October 7, 1982 Will shall instead be given, devised and bequeathed to the Trust for the Limited Benefit of Loretta Green, c/o Sunwest Bank of El Paso, Trust Department, P. O. Box 9697, El Paso, Texas 77987, or to any other successor trust or trustee."

The dilemma is twofold, however:

First, as I have long pointed out, very little, if any, of your assets will ever pass through your Will -- it appears all of your assets, or at least a majority of them, are held in joint tenancy with one of the three children, primarily Beth. As a result, upon your death, all of these assets will vest immediately and completely in the surviving joint tenant, and will not pass through the Will. At the least, this creates a tax problem, in my opinion, since the surviving joint tenant cannot simply give any more than $10,000 per year to those who would have otherwise gotten these assets through the Will, without incurring gift tax consequences.

Secondly, the codicil that Jack has requested will now actually change the working of the Will, assuming there are really assets to be disposed of by the Will. For example, as things stand currently, should Jack predecease you then his one-third share of your estate will be divided equally between Vivian, Patty and Loretta. By substituting the "Loretta Trust" in place of Jack, Vivian and Patty will receive nothing. I don't mind, but I think everyone should know how the Codicil will operate.

Nonetheless, it does seem to be a moot point if nothing is going to pass through the Will to begin with, given the joint tenancy accounts. I continue to believe that all of these accounts should be put back into the sole ownership of Mildred C. Green, with a Durable Specific Power of Attorney granted to Beth or Jack or Buster with respect to the particular account each is now a joint tenant on. This prevents the "nothing's going through the Will" stuff I've been "yelling" about for some time now, yet allows for account control as is now practiced. Please let me know what further assistance I can provide.

Respectfully and with lots of love to everyone,

THE LAW FIRM OF

Hi there,

Just wanted to drop a note to say "we love you". Found this beautiful stationary you sent me a couple of years ago with a wonderful note written inside the box lid ("So - No excuses, you have to write!") + decided you were right. After all this time, this → stationary still smells delicious.

We just finished staining the outside of our house, doors, etc.. - it looks great. One of these days I'll put a photo album together showing our house's progress. Mom arrives Aug 20th - can't wait to see her.

Would have flown home when we heard about Nana, but mom said not to. We send our condolences to all of you. Although it is sad for all of us; it ~~was~~ is a blessing for her. Fortunately we were able to spend some of her last healthy days with her in June - a time Alfie + I will always treasure. We really had a wonderful visit with Nana + Paw-Paw. (took her to the beach, had an 85th birthday party, etc...)

I've been enjoying my summer off, but have picked up some temp work the last few weeks (over)

Plan to look for something permanent in September. Oh my lady of leisure days are coming to an end - ugh (But I can't let Alfie have all the fun working his rear-end off - I should enjoy the same thrills)

Not much else to say - hope Bebo's well; I've written her a couple of times, but she's already responded, so I'd better get a letter off to her soon.

Give our love to all Samuel + Alfie

Accordingly, enclosed with this mailing is an Internal Revenue Service Form 1041 Schedule K-1 representing the excess deductions that each of the three residuary beneficiaries may claim on his or her 1987 income tax return filed by April 15, 1988. You will note that the deductions may only be claimed if the taxpayer itemizes deductions.

Please do not hesitate to contact us in the event that you have any questions regarding the enclosures or any other matter relative to the Estate.

RE: Estate of Nell V. Macdonald

Ladies and Gentlemen:

As you know, Nell V. Macdonald passed away on July 25, 1986. As Personal Representative of Mrs. Macdonald's Estate, having been appointed by the Allen Superior Court on October 6, 1986 pursuant to the nomination in Mrs. Macdonald's Will, I am writing to you as named persons in Mrs. Macdonald's Will. The Last Will and Testament and first Codicil thereto of Nell V. Macdonald, dated March 10, 1982 and September 19, 1984 respectively, copies of which are enclosed for your review and records, were probated by the Allen Superior Court on October 6, 1986.

On April 28, 1987, the Final Report in the Estate of Nell V. Macdonald was filed with the Allen Superior Court. A copy of the Final Report is also enclosed for your review and records. The Court will have a hearing on the Final Report in the next several weeks. Notice of the hearing will be issued by the Court to those named individuals who will receive a distribution from the Estate pursuant to Mrs. Macdonald's Will. The hearing serves as the final date by which objections on the Final Report must be filed with the Court. Your attendance at the hearing is not required by the Court or expected. Due to the fact that Mrs. Macdonald distributed and/or sold many items of personal property prior to her death, the Estate did not contain many items of personal property listed in the Will. Provision is made in the Final Report for distribution of all assets remaining in Mrs. Macdonald's possession at the time of her death.

Upon notice of Court action on the Final Report, which is anticipated to occur shortly after the scheduled hearing on the Final Report, distribution will be made to the beneficiaries as proposed in the Final Report. Subsequent to the distribution, the Estate will prepare a Supplemental Report for filing with the Court which summarizes all activity in the Estate subsequent to the filing of the Final Report. Approval by the Court of the Supplemental Report will operate to close the Estate.

We are hopeful that the enclosed materials will prove helpful to you. Please do not hesitate to contact our office in the event that you have any questions regarding the Estate.

Sincerely,

PETERS LAW FIRM

Dear Bus:

Enclosed you will find file-marked copies of the final account and petition for allowance of fees that I recently filed. Also enclosed is a copy of the form letter that was sent out to all of the heirs, along with their respective checks. In the first line of the second paragraph, either 5% or 10% was inserted where appropriate to the individual heirs. I have also enclosed a copy of the letter that was sent to Vivian DeCastro on behalf of Loretta Green.

Your file should now be complete with regard to the various documents that have been filed. A hearing on the final report will take place on November 24, 1997. At that time I expect that the Court will approve the fees and the final report. I would hope by that date all of the cancelled checks will be in so that we can file the supplemental report attaching the cancelled checks to that report and finalize this matter.

If you have any questions on these matters, please feel free to contact me.

Rest in Peace

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me beside the still water. He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His Name's Sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil. For Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies; Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I shall dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

SAY

Tutors to Hear Success Story

The volunteer tutors of the Fort Wayne Literacy Council (Laubach Affiliate) will be entertained at a tea Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock in McKay Hall of the First Presbyterian Church.

Mrs. George Macdonald of Fort Wayne, herself a Laubach tutor and the former director of the Nell Greene Dance Studio, will talk to the volunteers and their husbands and wives about her granddaughter, Miss Laurie Greene, who is a successful student of the Laubach method.

Born 17 years ago in Mexico City, the second child of John R. Greene and his Mexican wife, Esperanza, Laurie's delivery was difficult and doctors believed she would never walk or talk as a result of brain damage. However, when Laurie was two, the family moved to Fort Wayne and during the two years they spent here, Laurie did learn to walk.

After returning to Mexico, Laurie studied at a private school and, with private tutoring, was able to learn Spanish. When she was about 13, Laurie spent the Summer here with Mrs. Macdonald and attended Fairfield Junior High School to learn English. It was at that time a Laubach tutor, Mrs. Lyall Morrill, began teaching Laurie reading and writing and Mrs. Virginia Withey taught her the correct pronunciation of English. Mrs. Morrill worked with Laurie for the next two years while she attended school here and the tutoring system proved so beneficial to her that she was able to attend Chicago Junior School in Elgin, Ill.

She now has reading and writing ability in English approaching the fifth grade level and has returned to Mexico City. She is attending business school there and will return to Fort Wayne for further training this Summer.

Mrs. Macdonald also will tell the volunteers of her search in Mexico City to find a teacher with Laubach training and of the work of the Laubach Literacy Council in that area.

NELL M. GREEN MACDONALD died at 4:30 p.m. Friday at Ossian Health Care Center, Ossian. Born in Maplewood, Ohio, Mrs. Macdonald owned and operated the Nell Green Dance Studio from 1935 to 1957.
